

Bindi or No Bindi

There are three important reasons why people wear bindi.

- Religious reason...to symbolize Shiva's eyes, and to reaffirm their devotion to God. Also worn to ward off bad luck.
- Marital Status
- Fashion

What must be a Christian's response? I would like you to read Romans 14 very carefully. It will give you the answer. No Christian lives for himself. We live for Christ and do everything to proclaim Him to others.

Proceed after reading the above scripture passage. Then you must ask these questions:

- Will your action be a stumbling block to others?
- Are we promoting Christ or Hindu gods through our action? Also, try to hear what the Holy Spirit is trying to tell you.
- Are you troubled in your spirit? Some weaker Christians may grieve over it.
- Should we be a stumbling block?

This may feel insignificant. But it can create a controversy among the Christians. Read Romans 14 again and it will give you good clarification. Hope it helps!

Daniel Israel
pastor@acts242church.org